Report on One Day lecture on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)

Date: 06.12.2018

Venue: Kazi Najrul Islam Gallary

Organized by: Seminar and Symposium Sub-committee

Introduction: The seminar on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was organized by the College Seminar and Symposium Sub-committee to commemorate and raise awareness about the significance of intellectual property rights in today's globalized world. The event aimed to educate students and faculty members about the importance of protecting intellectual creations and innovations, as well as to discuss contemporary issues and challenges in the field of IPR.

Program Highlights:

1. Inaugural Address:

The seminar commenced with an inaugural address by Smt. Monua Panja, Assistant Professor in Bengali, emphasizing the role of intellectual property in fostering innovation, creativity, and economic development. The speaker highlighted the theme of International IPR Day and set the tone for the discussions that followed.

2. Keynote Session:

The keynote session was delivered by Dr. Nilay Kumar Maitra, Assistant Professor in Botany, who provided an overview of intellectual property rights frameworks and their relevance in the context of globalization. The session covered topics such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets, outlining their importance in protecting innovations and fostering fair competition.

3. Interactive Q&A Session:

An interactive question-and-answer session provided attendees with the opportunity to engage directly with the speaker.

4. Conclusion and Closing Remarks:

The seminar concluded with closing remarks by Sri Kalyanasis Bhattacharyya, expressing gratitude to the speaker and participants, and organizers for their contributions to the event. The importance of continuing dialogues on intellectual property rights and their impact on society and innovation was reiterated.

Outcome and Impact: The lecture on IPR provided a platform for knowledge sharing, critical thinking, and networking among stakeholders interested in the field of intellectual property. The event underscored the need for continuous education and awareness-building initiatives on IPR issues in academic and professional circles.

In conclusion, the seminar on IPR served as a catalyst for fostering a deeper understanding of intellectual property rights and their significance in promoting innovation-driven economies. It encouraged participants to reflect on the ethical, legal, and economic dimensions of IPR and inspired them to contribute meaningfully to the discourse on these critical issues.

One day workshop on Research Methodology, organized by Department of History, Govt. General Degree College, Keshiary held on 28-11-2019.

Summary:

Department of History, Govt. General Degree College, Keshiary organized a workshop on research methodology on 28-11-2019 which is a part of the seven-day in house program that was held in the last week of November 2019 at Govt Gen. Degree College, Keshiary. Research methodology is one of the most important learning events in the field of Higher education. Starting from initiation and conceptualization of a research idea it spans execution of study, testing and concluding/discussing the importance of the study and finally to manuscript drafting for publication consideration. Keeping in view the tremendous importance of research methodology in making undergraduate students aware of the research process, Dept. of History, GGDC Keshiary, took the decision of conducting a one-day workshop on research methodology in History in our college.

In the first session Dr. Sudipta Chakraborty, Honorable Officer-In-Charge addressed the listeners and welcomed the chief speaker of the program Dr. Tista Das, Assistant Professor, Dept of History, Bankura University. Prof Inder Mukherjee, Head, Dept. of History, GGDC, Keshiary set the tone of the program by discussing different aspects of research methodology.

In the second session chief guest, Dr.Das discussed all the aspects of research methodology in history as well as of social science by citing suitable examples and shared important experiences of her own.

In the third phase Prof. Inder Mukherjee conducted the interactive session. Dr. Tista Das shared ideas to the queries of the students that spawned great enthusiasm among students about their future for a stronger foundation in academia. Dr. Kalyanasis Bhattacharyya, Head, GGDC, Keshiary conducted the valedictory session. Overall, the program was very successful and helped the students a lot.

The relevant documents are attached.

Report

- On the occasion of World Intellectual Property Day, Government General Degree College, Keshiary, organized an enlightening seminar on the intersection of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Artificial Intelligence (AI). The seminar was held on 26-04-2022. The event brought together students and teachers to discuss the evolving landscape of IPR in the context of rapid advancements in AI technologies. The seminar commenced with a welcome address by the Officer-In-Charge, Dr. Sudipta Chakraborty of Government General Degree College, Keshiary. After his valuable speech on IPR the speaker, Debarshi Mondal provided an overview of the current IPR framework and discussed the challenges and opportunities posed by AI. The address emphasized the need for a balanced approach to ensure that IPR laws foster innovation while also providing adequate protection for AI-generated works. The speaker also highlighted the importance of understanding the implications of AI on intellectual property and the need for updated policies and regulations to protect innovations in this field. The seminar concluded with closing remarks from the seminar committee. The event successfully highlighted the critical need for adapting IPR laws to keep pace with AI advancements.
- The program turned out to be a grand success with full hall and many students appeared to be interested and interacted after the end of the seminar. Students were left with a deeper understanding of the intersection of IPR and AI and the importance of proactive measures to address emerging challenges.

Report

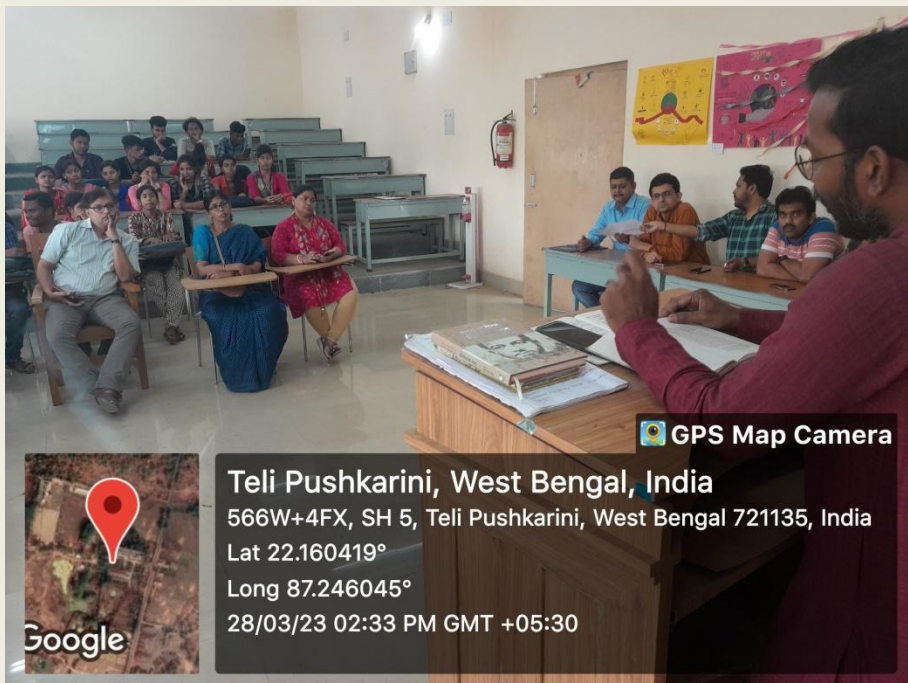

“বাংলার ত্রস্ত নীলিমা” থেকে “রূপসী বাংলায় রূপান্তর”

A Lecture on “বাংলার ত্রস্ত নীলিমা” থেকে “রূপসী বাংলায় রূপান্তর” was organized by ‘Seminar and Symposium Committee’ in collaboration with IQAC, Government General Degree College, Keshiary on 28.03.2023 from 2.30 pm. The speaker was Sri Ashok Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali, Govt. General Degree College, Keshiary.

Sixty (60) students were present in that lecture. It was inaugurated by OIC through his Inaugural address followed by welcome address by Seminar and Symposium committee Convener, Dr.Monua Panja. The Lecture session was ended with the vote of thanks given by IQAC convener of our college.

A major concern of this lecture on Rupashi Bangla, a very famous book of poems by Sri Jibanananda Das, was to identify the shifts of poetic interpretations that have occurred over the years which the lecturer has found ‘contentious’ and he has intended to bring this to the attention of future researchers of this much discussed book of verses among the scholars of literature. The speaker has opined that the interpretation which is popular now among the scholars has somewhat lost its poetic fervour and charm. Therefore, the said lecture would enlighten the students about the multiplicity of interpretations of literary texts especially modern poetry.
